Description

Portrait of a young girl leaning on a piece of furniture covered with a carpet, her left hand on a bouquet of roses placed nonchalantly. She also wears flowers in her hair. The look is very present, almost magnetic. Original frame and canvas; reinforcement pieces placed at the back of it to stabilize the wear of the canvas, and a tear at the top of the composition, which is absolutely not annoying. Cracks, very common for paintings from this period. 96x80 with its frame.
