Description

An imposing ànd elegant fine old, mid 19th century Empire style fireplace made out of the highly-valued, finest Bleu Fleuri marble. Decorated with nicely carved Acanthus leafs on the massive jambs. This classy fireplace brings a great sense of history and design into your house. This fireplace stood once in a 'Maison Maître' in Mons-Belgium. The house was build in 1848-1849 and this fireplace must be from the same period. Fireplace will be delivered with original old marble floortiles, can be Carrara or Noir de Mazy. Easy to re-install. We have also original Empire-foyer-tiles in our stock. Probably the best option to finish the foyer, especialy if you go for a real open fire.
