Description

In the central medallion, we find a bagged relic of Saint Venustus, Martyr during the reign of Emperor Diocletian. Our Holy Man is surrounded by relics of Saint Just, Saint Margaret the Virgin, Saint Mauritti and Saint Laurentii, all four Martyrs of the first centuries. The whole on a red background is part of a montage in perfect condition of golden canets decorated with pearls and numerous colored beads. On the back, handwritten writing gives the date 1867 and the presence of four ecclesiastical red wax seals. Dimensions of 29 cm by 22. Excellent condition - Origin Tyrol.
