

Head Of Bénévent, 19th Century

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Plaster

Height : 44

Description

Head of Benevento: plaster sculpture with bronze patina from excavation representing a young man's head surrounded by an olive wreath. Based on the original bronze sculpture discovered at Herculaneum and now kept at the Louvre Museum in Paris.
On a pedestal base with black patina.
Nineteenth century.
Good condition.

Dealer

Cléry Antiques

18th century furnitures and fine art objects

Tel : 0689602398

Mobile : 06 89 60 23 98

86 rue de Cléry

Paris 75002