Description

Half carved coconut, decorated with a unicorn and a lion standing on either side of a medallion, above a character's head (a savage), work of a convict or sailor, period Nineteenth century. This coconut is in good condition, its decoration is very original. Note: 2 small slots on the top and on the side (visible in particular on the photo of the back), some scratches and wear from time, see photos. _____ *Coconut, like corozo, was worked by sailors or also by convicts. They worked it to pass the time but also and above all to make a little money to improve their daily lives. Can also be attributed to sailors during their long voyages. These coconut or corozo objects are beautiful examples of popular art. Dimensions: 13.7 cm x 9.9 cm / thickness 5 cm Reference: E50 16 All photos are
