Description

Treat yourself to an exceptional piece with the 8-day "INSEPARABLES" clock (1926) by René Lalique, an Art Deco treasure. This relief-cast glass clock captures eternal beauty with two opalescent blue loving couples seated on prunus flowers, adding a touch of romance and sophistication to any interior. Featuring a Swiss eight-day movement, as indicated on the dial, it demonstrates Swiss watchmaking precision and quality. The "R Lalique" signature embossed on the front and "France n° 765" engraved on the lower edge confirm its authenticity and prestigious provenance. Dimensions: Height: 11 cm; Width: 11cm; Depth: 0.50 cm. This model, created on September 3, 1926 in molded-pressed and patinated opalescent glass, is an emblematic work of René Lalique. Listed under number 765
