Description

This clock in opalescent molded-pressed glass with satin patina illustrates six swallows delicately sculpted on tree branches, evoking a peaceful forest setting. Every detail reflects the technical mastery and artistic sensitivity of Lalique, famous for his creations that combine elegance and innovation. Equipped with an eight-day Swiss "HENRI DISTEHEIM" movement, attesting to its superior watchmaking quality, this clock is a living testimony to the artisanal know-how of the early 20th century. The "R Lalique" signature embossed on the front, as well as the number "763" engraved on the lower edge, confirm its authenticity and prestige. Dimensions: Height: 13.50 cm Width: 12.50 cm (with base) Depth: approximately 1 cm This emblematic model, created in 1920, is listed
