250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 8,5 cm

Height : 8,5 cm

Description

Norman goblet with a flared shape in blown glass in a gadroon mold, the star base, with red, yellow and white enameled decoration of a rooster on a branch, two large flowers and the initial E at the back. Normandy, early 19th century, circa 1820 - 1830. Dimensions: height 8.5 cm, base 5.8 cm, rim 8.5 cm. Very good state of conservation, with intact enameled decoration. We report a tiny gap on the edge, almost imperceptible and whose shape is reminiscent of a small burst air bubble.
