Description

Let yourself be enchanted by the splendor of a masterpiece by Émile Gallé, where nature itself seems to whisper in your ear. This rare trilobed pedestal table, a true ode to plant poetry, is adorned with a delicate decoration inlaid with daisies. Each petal tells a story, whispers a promise, "a little, a lot, passionately", tenderly engraved in the wood. The trefoiled top, characteristic of Art Nouveau, features daisies finely inlaid in rich, detailed marquetry. The shades of wood used create a striking visual effect, with each flower and leaf meticulously depicted. Gallé's inlaid signature blends subtly into the floral painting, adding a touch of prestige to this unique piece. The slender legs in weathered beech provide stability and elegance, while the marquetry top, embellished with a
