Description

Superb low sideboard in neo-Gothic oak, 19th century work with re-use of 15th century period pieces: front and side panels, probably also the pilasters. Iron hinges and trim, also 15th century lock facade. Paneled sides decorated with napkin folds. Gothic decor on the facade including a coat of arms with fleur-de-lys. Beautiful proportions, quality cabinetry. The doors close using a magnet system. Good house condition, patina of use.
