Description

Oil on canvas, 61cm x 50 cm, sold with its American frame 71 cm x 60 cm, signed and dated lower right Guy Bezançon 1993. Very good state of conservation. Sold with a certificate invoice. Guy Bezançon (1942-2023) Born in Sens, painter and musician, Guy Bezançon belongs to this handful of unclassifiable artists who, from the 1970s, sought to combine graphics and music (giant painted scores). This is how we see his name associated as much with his own musical works as with numerous shows for which he also designed the scenography. An essential player in the contemporary musical world, supported by great masters like Pierre Schaeffer, Olivier Messiaen, Vinko Globokar, Pierre Boulez etc. he devotes himself essentially to the organ and improvisation, a field in which he is recognized as one of the best specialists. He also practices concrete and electroacoustic music with passion and has performed in numerous organ recitals. In the 1970s, he formed deep friendships with Laurent Terzieff and Michaël Lonsdale and some big names in theater. It is with them that he recorded records and CDs devoted to his own music, among others, on biblical texts as well as stage music and for the Radio.
