Description

Adrien Hamon 1875-1963 the boats in Collioure very beautiful oil on pointillist canvas in an original carved wooden frame Delivery 30 euros Of Breton origin, passionate about the sea, Hamon (1875, Bgard - 1963) combines his passion for the painting from his military life. Throughout his missions, he paints seascapes with a pointillist touch. He finally prematurely abandoned his military career at the beginning of the 1920s to embrace that of a painter and settle permanently in Collioure, an inexhaustible source of sunny seascapes. All of his work is devoted to the sea and most of it to Collioure.
