

Rare And Very Important 19th Century Lamp Hanger

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Description

Description:

Gilt bronze and Empire green patina

This hanger was used to support a large light fixture. With its elegant but sober design, it was to be used in a hall, beautiful stables, a public place, bank, hotel...

The part attached to the ceiling is in an inverted cone ending in reverse cushioning in stepped moldings. Five bails are fixed on the cone and carry as many bronze cords ending in bails as well. The cords carry the counterpart of the cone in the shape of a trunk and their bails are blocked in five pitons to hold the trunk. A hook under the trunk is used to easily attach a light fixture, a lantern, etc. I have never seen such a light fixture element, it can be used easily in all situations and with various light fixtures.

Condition:

Very good condition, complete, a few small invisible dents from use, beautiful patina of use. Tiny holes made for electricity .

Without fragility to carry a heavy light fixture

Dimensions:

Height: 155 cm, upper cone width 27 cm, lower trunk: 21 cm.

I acquired the lot from an old bronze maker.

There are various bronze elements or accessories from all periods, this type of supply is difficult to find especially for large models, therefore very decorative. I will present several models, and you can call me for a specific request that I can resolve if I also have this bronze element.
