Description

Seated bronze cat from Vienna by Franz Xaver Bergmann known as Nam Greb (1861-1936). Cold painted decoration, marked "geschützt" (deposited) on the left rear of its tail. Good general condition, the attitude and expression of the animal are very realistic, faithful to the creations of F.Bergmann. Some enamel breaks, late 19th century. Another cat sculpture, by the same artist, is presented to you in my gallery.
