Description

Very decorative wrought iron table stamped by Charles Piguet (CP monogram stamped in the metal), artistic ironworker in Lyon (1887-1942). The top is made of mirror and off-white lacquered wood. Work from the 1930s. Note: The mirror is pitted (see photos) and there are scratches (very complicated to photograph). The presence of four cracks in the frame which are linked to the fact that the latter is made up of four distinct assembled parts. Cracks are therefore present at the junctions.
