Description

Elegant piano bench circa 1880/1900 in Louis XVI style, in solid mahogany enhanced with copper nets, scrapers, and copper ring and shoe feet. The seat is very stable, and the blond canage is in perfect condition. It should be noted that some threads are missing on the spacer (not very visible without getting closer). Charming little precious extra seat which can also be used at the end of the bed or to place art books near a sofa.
