Description

Roll-top desk in the lower part and two-level tiered desk in the upper part.

There are two drawers on the left and right shelves and a beveled mirror in the center.

Once the cylinder is opened, you access three drawers and three storage compartments just above.

This also provides access to a green felt writing shelf, which slides out to extend outside the cabinet.

A large lockable drawer is located under the shelf.

This refined piece of furniture is made of an oak frame, mahogany and mahogany veneer.

The stands are decorated with bronze galleries.

The piece of furniture is decorated with brass rods on the turn as well as in the grooves as well as bronze handles and keyholes.

The drawers and the cylinder are decorated with Martin varnish, decorated with flowers on the drawers and a romantic scene on the cylinder.

Both locks are in perfect working order and have their keys.

Very good general condition of the piece of furniture, we note some very fine gaps on the martin varnish, very barely visible without looking in detail, and an ink stain in the right drawer inside the cylinder.

French work from the 20th century, circa 1930/1940.

Possibility of collection on site, or contact us for possible shipping.
