Description

Louis Philippe commode in the late 19th century

This chest of drawers is equipped with three drawers mounted in a dovetail, ensuring perfect solidity. The drawers can be opened daily and contain many sometimes heavy objects. They slide perfectly.

The heart-shaped entrances are made of brass and are not of origin.

The back of the chest of drawers has solid wood panels which are therefore very resistant.

The chest of drawers is perfectly stable. It rests on low feet which respect the shape of the furniture at the front and are called "pieds pistolet" and two straight feet at the back.

The top of the dresser is a grey marble Saint Anne decorated with white veins. The latter is both modern and elegant and perfectly enhances this piece of furniture. The marble has a moulded edge called "pair of buttocks". The corners of the marble are rounded.

The "ring" keys predate the chest of drawers. They are used to open drawers.

The «ring» key is of origin and works perfectly.

The interior of the cabinet has been cleaned so that the objects are stored in a very healthy and odorless environment.

In the 19th century, all renowned houses had a Louis Philippe chest of drawers with simple and elegant lines. The reign of Louis-Philippe brought joy to cabinetmakers. The latter enhance large smooth surfaces, work and select the veneer in order to obtain the most beautiful patterns.

It will attract attention with the quality of the wood and the softness of its lines. It will bring warmth, relaxation and well-being to your interior. Its creator invites us to understand, to form an intimate and unique relationship.

This piece of furniture passed down from generation to generation is enriched with its history by being installed in your interior.

In turn, you will bring your piece of the story puzzle of your life. You will highlight it by playing with its lines.

You will place your favorite objects on its marble.

It is a piece of furniture with character.
