Description

Hand Tufted Rug, Lady Unicorn Design, Circa 1970

What is a Hand Tufted Rug?
Soft, fluffy and perfectly suited to contemporary designs, the Hand Tufted Rug, also called Hand Tuft or Asian Point, has become a reference in the world of designer rugs.

This technique offers the artisan upholsterer great freedom of manufacture. Tufting is a process using artisanal manufacturing methods, ancestral know-how mainly developed in India and China, and modern weaving tools.
Weaving is done by hand, the artisan implanting the textile strands directly into a cotton canvas, a canvas stretched on a vertical loom. Tufting is done using a strand gun following the colors, the design and the different heights of the strands of the product.

The tufting technique makes it possible to produce high-quality products and to allow for all eccentricities! Shapes, colors, designs, relief, everything is possible with an exceptional rendering. For example, it is possible to sculpt the carpets, the fiber is then implanted at maximum height of relief then sculpted using scissors and razors. This method is also called "Carving". Carved carpets are truly exceptional pieces and are highly prized for their particularly luxurious finished appearance.

This model is signed by an unknown artist named "Kell" Limited series 11/300.
The unicorn lady is centered in a three-dimensional checkerboard.
The unicorn, a mythical animal with a single horn, has been present for centuries in legends and myths around the world.
A symbol of purity, wisdom and strength, it has now become a real phenomenon in popular culture.
Unicorns have the natural power to detect lies. Unicorns sense evil energy and black magic: they can see through a liar's game. In fact, you have bad intentions, seeing such pure and fascinating creatures can make you think!

The nature of the Lady and the Unicorn :
A vision of paradise, in the eyes of Christian thought and a garden of love in the aristocratic and courtly sense.

The thick and high-quality wool from New Zealand, guarantees absolute comfort and softness that has nothing to do with a traditional hand-knotted rug.
