Description

Lovely little Louis XV style sideboard in marquetry of violet wood trellis and Rio rosewood frames, rich ornamentation of very finely chiseled gilded bronze and top of royal Belgian marble molded in corbin beak.

Opening a drawer and a door revealing a beautiful interior in Rio rosewood with four drawers and a niche.

Rare piece of furniture by its measurements, very elegant, high perched with its four delicately curved legs.

Parisian work, workshops of François Linke or entourage, circa 1900.

Very good condition, restored by our workshop, natural varnish with a tampon.
