

Dresden Irish Lace Porcelain Figurine

120 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 12cm

Description

Mid-20th century hand-painted porcelain figurine with lace decor and gold accents by Muller Volkstedt. The crowned MV hallmark and the inscription Irish Dresden, Rehearsal are on the bottom. Muller Volkstedt was a porcelain factory founded in 1907 in Thuringia. It moved to Ireland in 1962 and has since been more often referred to as Irish Dresden. This figurine therefore dates back to the first half of the 20th century. Collectible porcelain figurine and interior decoration.
