Louis XVI period chest of drawers in solid walnut and marquetry. The uprights stylize the grooves of columns in light and dark inlaid wood. 3 large drawers on the front with marquetry reserves. Original handles and locks, we do not have the key. The light gray marble top seems to have been brought back in the 19th century. Slight deformation of the body hence the need for a small wedge under the marble at the bottom right. Furniture in very good house condition. 18th century period.
