| Description |
|-------------|

Victorian display cabinet in walnut root with expertly chiseled gilded bronze elements.

The front is characterized by two glass doors inside which there are two shelves to place objects.

The top is in walnut root surrounded by a reserve in fine wood and ending with a gilded bronze fitting.

The cymatium has the same structure as the underlying cabinet and has the mirror contemporary with it.

Conditions: Restored by our master craftsmen with the traditional method of shellac and alcohol
