Description

Oil on canvas by Claude WEISBUCH titled on the back "Without trickery" Work signed lower right Original frame Claude Weisbuch is a multidisciplinary artist born in 1927, and died in 2014 in Paris. He likes to work from contrasts, for his colors he generally uses brown and white. The contrast is also highlighted by the technique, on the engravings the movement of the subject and the gestures of the artist hold a central place. Through his treatment, Claude Weisbuch gives his works an "unfinished" appearance, often leaving a large part of the surface empty. Dimensions without frame: 35.5 x 27 cm Dimensions with frame: 52 x 43.5 cm
