Description

Beautiful LXV wall cartel in natural wood. Pretty model, elegantly curved and sculpted with acanthus leaves. Very beautiful patina of warm color. The cartel has retained its wall light console which allows a wall-mounted presentation. Curved glass on the central lens and original wrought iron fastening elements. The entire body and its wall console are from the 18th century but the mechanical movement is later, from the 19th century, and needs to be restored (it seems complete with the exception of its bell).. In view of its line, this pretty LXV cartel could come from the Dauphiné region; it has very beautiful dimensions (76 CM in height in total) and constitutes a very beautiful element for an 18th century decor... NB/ Shipping possible to France via Colissimo with tracking: 50 euros.
