

Persian Rug Isfahan Wool Kork On Silk. Around 1960

1 850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wool

Length : 167

Width : 108

Diameter : n°334

Description

High quality lambswool velvet called "kork" made on silk.

Delicate carpet with central ivory medallion inlaid with scrolls, garlands of arabesque flowers surrounding a burgundy star medallion on a navy background.

These carpets are made in the city of Isfahan in southwest Iran. They are considered today to be among the most beautiful Persian carpets. They are characterized by a very high density, richly detailed patterns and high quality of materials. Incredible finesse!

Dimensions: 167x108 cm

Condition: Good condition, shortened fringes, on

Dealer

SHART ANTIK TAPIS

Antique Carpets, Tapestries & Textiles

Mobile : 0617926662

10A rue de Sarraaltroff

Reding 57445

one side the fringes have become pink (drips).

MY COMPLETE GALLERY