Description

Marie Laurencin (1883-1956): "Two friends", color heliogravure, 23 x 17 cm on sheet 29.5 x 24 cm, probably taken from a work, printed signature and numbering. Light foxing, irregular cutting of the sheet, a small tear formerly taped in the right margin. Too often reduced to his image of "painter of young girls with doe eyes", the Artist nevertheless participated in the explosion of modern art trends at the beginning of the 20th century, muse and muse of numerous artists and writers including Guillaume Apollinaire and Max Jacob, frequenting Picasso and Matisse, Derain and Braque, numerous museums housing his works.
