Description

Oil painting on canvas from the 19th century representing a quality lady posing for the artist. Very interesting work of very good quality, particularly in terms of the faces and the fabrics, with a magnificent rendering. We can see in this work all the mastery and originality of the subject, exuding a sensuality and a mystery magnified by the artist. Born in 1815 in Castres, he was a great portrait painter and participated in numerous Salons while teaching at the School of Fine Arts in Toulouse. Signature of the artist and dated 1880. Some usual restorations to note and a sumptuous period gilded wood frame. Possibility of sending by specialized professional carrier. Invoice and certificate provided. Frame dimensions 116 by 144 cm.
