Description

Solid oak table from the early 20th century and Louis XV style; Elegant crowbar-shaped base and scrolled crosspieces, all doweled. The top has been deliberately left in raw wood but can be stained and waxed on request like the base. Perfect condition and very good stability, serviced in our workshops. This table is original in its dimensions, and can serve as a dining table, meeting table, business table or kitchen table. For information, this table could only be photographed at the foot of the workshop given its dimensions. Visible on request on site. Delivery possible by specialized transport on quote.
