Description

The object is a bronze bust, signed by Barbedienne, a noted 19th-century French foundryman. The sculpture shows meticulous attention to detail, with textures suggesting curls or waves in the hair and draping around the shoulders. Barbedienne was known for his high-quality reproductions of ancient sculptures and works of art, and this piece reflects his masterful craftsmanship. Barbedienne's signature adds value and interest to the work, making it a significant example of 19th-century decorative art.
