Rare antique Russian bronze of a Cossack on a pulling horse. This dynamic sculpture was executed around 1880-1900 after the model of Albert-Moritz Wolf (1854-1923), who received European recognition for his masterfully executed Russian cabinet bronze figures.

A similar sculpture from the Wolf Foundry sold at Sothebys for £18,000. For AMWilf's biography in Russian, see the following link:
