Description

Gaston Larrieu (1908-1983): "Chapel of Gourby at Rivière in the Landes", oil on canvas 38 x 46 cm, mounted in a gilded and rechampi Parnassian frame 54 x 62 cm. Countersigned, located and dated 58 on the back. The famous cantor of the Landes was also nourished by his travels, as much in Spain and Italy as in Brittany, sometimes pushing as far as the neighboring Basque Country, but it was to his native region that he devoted most of his time. his work in a style with sharp writing and a warm palette as in our painting where the "Utrillo-esque" whites make the brown of the tiles and the deep greens of the pines sing. This charming little 13th century chapel is dedicated to Saint Blaise. Do not hesitate to ask us for photos or additional information by email or telephone. Other photos
