Description

COD 10936

French sculpture from the first half of the 20th century. Work in patinated metal, bronze colour, mounted on a wooden base depicting cherub with cornucopia, of beautiful decoration and quality. Sculpture finished from the center, of good size, pleasantly chiseled, note the beautiful dress and curls of the putto (see photo). The little boy holding the cornucopia, symbol of abundance, is refined. Work of considerable weight, ideal for display in a living room or study. It shows small signs of wear which give the object even more charm. In good condition.
