

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Decorative Plate Colette Guéden For Primavera Limoges Porcelain

180 EUR

Signature : Colette Guéden Primavera

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 26cm

Description

Limoges porcelain plate after a design by Colette Gueden for Primavera, decorated with polychrome enamels on a white background, part of a table service from the "Pique-nique" series, 1945. Model reproduced in "Primavera Atelier D' art of Spring, by Alain-René Hardy, Editions Faton, page 477. Two other plates with different designs are available (price on request)

Diameter 26cm

Double signature Colette Guéden in the decor and Primavera and Limoges France stamp on the back.

Colette Gueden (1905-2000)

The name and work of Colette Gueden are closely associated with Primavera, the art workshop of the Printemps department stores in Paris, founded in 1912 by Pierre Laguionie,

Dealer

Cornershop Design

20th Century Design

Tel : 0622750609

Mobile : +33 (0) 622750609

Paris 75004

manager of Printemps, and l. lawyer René Guilleré, founder of the Society of Decorative Artists Born in 1905 in Indochina, Colette Gueden entered the Ecole des Beaux-Arts in Saint-Etienne where she graduated three years later In 1927 in Paris, she. works as a designer at Primavera alongside Claude Lévy, Gisèle Favre, Madeleine Sougez. She became manager in 1934, then director in 1938. Under her direction, Primavera supplied carpets, furnishing fabrics, fashionable wallpapers, and specialized in ceramic objects: vases, trinkets, figurines... adventure ended in 1972, after sixty years of creations that had become synonymous with inventiveness and fantasy.