Description

[MANUSCRIPT] - Handwritten clippings from Bournon. Handwritten notes taken from the handwritten memoirs of Michel Errard, valet of Thiebaut I, Duke of Lorraine. Extract from the memoirs of Florentin Thiriat. Amusements de Bréyé. sl, se, around 1780; small folio, about 50 pp., contemporary paperback. In 4 parts but these reading notes all seem to be by the same hand. The first 3 parts are taken from a manuscript by Mory d'Elvange, the fourth part is taken from a work published in Nancy in 1733, the copyist retained a passage on the war of the Rustauds and on the Sybille of Marsal. Good document certainly coming from a historian of Lorraine.
