Description

Watercolor depicting a wooden sheepfold on the right with a grove of trees in the countryside. The watercolor is glued to a mount that must date from the first part of the 19th century. An inscription, Kendall, at the bottom left of the mount, did not allow me to identify the author. Folds and accidents are visible on the mounting cardboard and moisture stains on the watercolor. It measures, alone, 28x21 cm and is sold without a frame.
