Description

Roger KEIFLIN (born in 1949), this talented artist began painting very early, at the age of fifteen, and quickly gained a great reputation and awards at various exhibitions. This painter created his own gallery in 1974 in Mulhouse, Galerie Concorde, then entrusted it to his son David to settle in Provence. The colors sublimated by the light of this region will be permanently and harmoniously part of his palette. Roger KEIFLIN is present in several art galleries in Mulhouse, Strasbourg, Saint Rémy de Provence and Marseille. This work from the 1990s, an oil on canvas depicting a Provençal countryside landscape, titled "Maison aux coquelicots", is a reflection of his Art and his taste for flowers in bright tones that breathe energy into his compositions.
