Pair Of Cruets And Their Tray In Silver And Silver-plated Bronze France Circa 1840

930 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 17,5 cm

Description
-------------

Liturgical set consisting of a pair of chased silver cruets and their cast, chased and silvered bronze tray. The cruets, in the shape of ewers, have lids and a pedestal-shaped pedestal. The two cruets are decorated at mid-body with plant motifs including vine leaves decorated with bunches of grapes on the wine cruet, reeds on the water cruet. The upper part of the body is surrounded by a frieze of chain leaves and glands. The added high handle has a plant scroll. The grip on one of the lids takes the form of a bunch of grapes surrounded by vine leaves, and on the other shells. The basin is oval, with the tenons for positioning the cruets. It has a fairly wide rim decorated with bunches of grapes connected to bunches of reeds. Finally, a frieze of water leaves highlights the edge of the tray. 950/1000 silver,
