Description

Louis XIII style beech and walnut landing linen chest. This small piece of furniture is richly carved with geometric patterns of scrolls, volutes and foliage. On each side, twisted half-columns complete this atypical chest. The sides are sober and the top with a molded frame with a corbin beak is carved with flowers around its perimeter. In the center, this lid is decorated with a tapestry embroidered with roses in cross stitch. The latter is domed and studded.  Period: Late 19th century Excellent condition after Restoration in our cabinetmaking workshop. Original fabric.
