Description

Magnificent old multicolored silk trimmings. This rich braid, in very good condition since it has never been used, is composed of multiple meanders, arcs and loops skillfully intertwined in tones of ivory, purple, ochre, olive green, black. A very beautiful and elegant combination of colors to highlight and make unique, cushions, curtains, lampshades, armchairs or other according to your imagination. Here in the last photo is a splendid idea for decorating your cushions. 19th century period. Very good quality, a complex weave, like we don't do anymore, with no less than 6 different colors of thread... An exceptional material, silk, since today the manufacturing even from the biggest houses is in synthetic materials, a French origin coming from a weaving workshop probably in Lyon while
