Cropp & Farr jewellery is characterised by excellent workmanship as well as the use of bright and vibrant gemstones. Founded in 1917, the London based jewellers created beautiful brooches, earrings, rings, necklaces, cufflinks and bracelets throughout the 20th century, each bearing the firms' maker's mark 'C&F' - sometimes within a rectangular surround and frequently accompanied with hallmarks.

Cropp & Farr pieces come in a wide variety of eye-catching designs but typically feature floral sprays, figural renderings, textured gold and kaleidoscopic gemstones.

Excellent vintage condition.
