

Statue Of The Virgin And Child In Carved And Polychromed Oak - 17th Century

500 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

VENTE A PRIX COUTANT:

Discover this magnificent statue representing the Virgin and Child, made of carved and polychromed oak, dating from the 17th century. Standing, the Virgin carries the Child seated on her left arm, a classic posture that expresses both gentleness and majesty. Originally from the Touraine region of France, this religious work of art is a testament to the know-how and devotion of the artisans of the time. With a height of 30 cm, it will fit perfectly into a collection of sacred art or serve as a centerpiece for any lover of religious antiques. Please note that the statue has some small losses, which is common for a piece from this period. Characteristics: Origin: France, Touraine Period: 17th century Height: 30 cm

Condition: Small losses Shipping: Very careful

<https://www.proantic.com/en/1386992-statue-of-the-virgin-and-child-in-carved-and-polychromed-oak-17th-century.html>

Dealer

Arte Collection

Medieval and Haute-Epoque Art

Tel : Tél. : +33 (0)7 44 44 81 02

13 LES ARENES

Névian 11200