Description

A fantastic Pair of original art deco uplighters with a ribbed column that leads up to a detailed top consisting of over 80 glass rods around the bottom of the shade that allows a subtle light to shine through whilst also up lighting.

A very rare eye catching period pair, very scarce to find a matching pair.

They have extra wide uplighter shades that set them apart from the rest and they have a modernist look and feel when lit.

They are in very good vintage condition and ready to display.

Original Art Deco furniture at its best.
