Description

The vintage Chinese screen is decorated with hand-painted mother-of-pearl inlays. The four-part screen features a double-sided polychrome painting depicting forest and seascapes. High-quality inlays with incredible details are characterized by perfect artistic taste. The forest landscape is made in red tones, trees and animals (deer) are created using the marquetry technique. The seascape in blue and green tones is decorated with the image of mother-of-pearl sailboats. The screen is covered with a glossy glossy lacquer, the legs are protected by brass plates. Dimensions: 140/45*4
