Description

A cross decorated with vines is erected on rocks strewn with branches of foliage. On either side stand a woman wrapped in a garment covering her head and revealing only her face and hands and on the other hand another kneeling character, with long abundant hair, one elbow resting on a stone. The drapes of the clothes are particularly neat. Very dense wood, probably pear tree. Good condition except for a missing hand, accident and loss on the back of the base, old traces of wormholes without gravity treated against any recurrence
