Description

Very rare and very elegant 18th century games table in solid cherry wood and marquetry. Its triangular top is entirely marquetry and decorated in its center with a large six-pointed star. It opens by folding down on the central rear leg. This sliding rear leg reveals a drawer which also allows the storage of pawns, tokens and cards. When opened, the top reveals a green felt mat in perfect condition, lined with a fleece. Thanks to its triangular top, this table can be placed in the corner of a room, serving as a corner and thus taking up less space. It can also be used as a console. Once open, this table takes the shape of a square. The board is surrounded by a wooden gallery to prevent dice, pawns, etc. from falling. Our board is equipped with four angular and circular appendages, designed to accommodate
