Description

Beautiful footage of Jacquard silk with a pink satin background and wide stripes on a white background alternating with narrower stripes. Very rich design of the stripes, finished on each side by grooves, entirely dotted with undulating polychrome flowering stems of four colors - three shades of pink, from the lightest to the darkest, to give relief to the flowers, each different and green for the stems and leaves -. Each wide stripe is further bordered on each side by a frieze on a white background of a scattering of buttercup yellow flowering stems, very bright. No less than 6 double stripes with a total width of 9 cm and 6 narrow stripes of 2 cm. This "very Marie-Antoinette" footage will be ideal for covering armchairs, chairs or sofas, making cushions or any other work according to your desires or needs... Dimensions: Length: 400 cm Width: 130 cm Good condition, as you see in the photos. The fabric which has never been used is thick, very resistant and flexible, without wear with its fluted edges on each side. Tiny marks in particular of old adhesive on the reverse near one end (photos 11 and 12). Beautiful polychromy:

the colors have remained fresh and intense.
