It has always been owned and managed by the Barovier family. Founded in 1295, its history is linked to that of Venice. Ercole Barovier (1889-1972), designer and chemist, designed more than 25,000 objects, the sketches of which are kept in the company archives. In 1936, the Barovier family joined forces with the Toso family, also Venetian glassmakers.
