Description

Elegant gilt bronze lamp dating from the Napoleon III era. Richly chiseled with acanthus leaves and garland plant motifs, the double-evolution spinning top shaft rests on a cylindrical stepped base ending in small ball feet decorated with acanthus leaves. Two ram's heads adorn the sides of this lamp. The socket is held by a pear-shaped tube. This light fixture, sparkling with its golden patina, will appeal to lovers of authentic and period objects. ***** Period: Mid-19th century Excellent condition.
