Description

LÉONCE CHABRY (1832 - 1882) THE ARCACHON BASIN Oil on wood (unsigned) 24 x 32 cm Around 1881 Provenance: Heirs of the artist Along with Adrien Dauzats, Léonce Chabry is one of the rare orientalist painters from Bordeaux. After his premature death, the Bordeaux museum bought a View of Cairo, and the Brussels museum bought Ruins of Thebes. But if Léonce Chabry stands out for his orientalist works, he remains nonetheless attached to his native country. This view of the Arcachon basin is evidence of this.
